

ALLIES TO GOVERN CHINESE NATION

Forming a Provincial Government For the Celestial Empire.

EMPRESS A PRISONER

Troops Will Not Enter the Capital City Until Orders Are Received.

NO MORE TROOPS FOR CHINA

Shanghai, Aug. 24.—[Special Cablegram]—Finding none responsible in the allies are forming a provisional government.

A Tien Tsin telegram reports that Prince Tuan and the dowager empress are captured. After proceeding one day's journey from Peking and finding Tong-Fuh-Siang's troops uncontrollable, burning and ravaging the country, they became terrified and turned back. Li Hung Chang confirms the report regarding the demoralized condition of the imperial troops and recognizes the futility of resisting the foreigners, and professes a conversion to reform principles.

The allies are still surrounding the imperial city but will not enter until the governments are heard from.

Chaffee believes there will be more fighting.

No More Troops for China.

Washington, Aug. 24.—No more United States troops are to be sent to China unless future developments necessitate such action. Even those now on the way or under orders for service in China are to be diverted from their destination.

Such is the order promulgated by the war department today under instructions from President McKinley.

Proof of Good Faith.
It marks, as far as the United States is concerned, the close of military activity in China unless an unexpected crisis arises.

The order gives unimpeachable proof of the good faith of the United States. Having secured its principal aim—the rescue of Minister Conger and other Americans at Peking—the government, in order to obtain its other demands, will, as far as possible, substitute diplomacy for force of arms.

Demands Upon China.
China will now be asked by the United States to insure to her these three desiderata.

1. Restoration of order throughout the empire.
2. Securing for the future safety for American missionaries and protection for American commercial interests.
3. Indemnity for the outrages suffered by Americans during the Boxer troubles.

These granted, the United States military force will be gradually reduced until, comparatively speaking, only a mere corporal's guard is left in the Chinese empire.

Not to Despoil China

In still another way does the order show the good faith of the administration's policy. Beyond all cavil it proves, as has been announced from the start, that if the European powers initiate a campaign of land-grabbing—if they set on foot a move for the partition of the Chinese empire—the United States will take no part therein.

Once having secured these three demands it will make on China, this government will only be concerned in the maintenance of the "open door" policy in the empire.

Fire Rages and Blood Flows

London, Aug. 24.—Fires, fighting and dissension are apparently following in the wake of the relief of Peking.

The Daily Mail publishes dispatches from the Chinese capital, dated as late as Aug. 17, declaring that a great fire was then raging in the imperial city. The Russian commander had declined to accept the decision of the other generals not to violate the imperial precincts and street fighting was going on.

Says Empress Is Taken

London, Aug. 24.—It is reported in Shanghai in Chinese circles that the empress dowager and Prince Tuan have been captured.

The emperor is said to be in Peking with the allied forces.

Russia now has Manchuria at her mercy. The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Mail states that after Zizker and Moukden have been stormed the subjugation of the province will be completed.

Peking Reported Quiet
Shanghai, Aug. 24.—[Special Cablegram]—Peking is reported quiet. The whereabouts of the refugees who left the capital is unknown. It is reported that the allies have burned Prince Tuan's house.

Chinese Are Repulsed
Che Foo, Aug. 24.—[Special Cablegram]—The Chinese tried to cut communications near Tien Tsin but were repulsed by the allies whose loss was slight.

Private Arthur Drowned.
Washington, Aug. 24.—[Special Telegram]—Admiral Remey cables from Taku that all the troops from the Hancock have landed, and that the marines have gone to Tien Tsin. Private Arthur Woods of the marine corps was accidentally drowned.

Tientsin, Aug. 24.—On Aug. 16 the United States cavalry engaged with several thousand Boxers and Chinese troops ten miles west of Tientsin. Our loss was six wounded, the Chinese was 350 killed and fifty prisoners. In contrast with the savagery of the Chinese, the American surgeons dressed the wounds of the enemy.

TWO OSHKOSH BOYS TRY TO EAT FIRE

They Attended a Midway Show and Tried to Emulate a Fire Eater They Saw There.

Oshkosh, Aug. 24.—[Special Telegram]—Charles Levisse and Orlando Quat lie at their home in this city terribly burned as the result of trying to eat fire. The boys are each thirteen years of age.

The boys attended Midway show last week and became very much interested in the fire eater. The boys gathered in the barn to give a show to some companions. They filled their mouths with cotton soaked in gasoline and planned to ignite as they issued from their mouths and mystify their spectators.

The filled their mouths with the cotton as planned and then lit the gas. The cotton took fire and the flames spread to the boy's clothing. The boy's lives were saved with the greatest difficulty. Both will be terribly disfigured.

BADGER PROHIBS NAME A TICKET

Party Expects to Poll 10,000 Votes in Wisconsin This Fall With a Campaign Fund of $600.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 24.—The state convention of the prohibition party of Wisconsin closed here yesterday after naming the following state ticket:

Governor—J. B. Smith, Madison.
Lieutenant-Governor—T. K. Thorndike, Eau Claire.
Secretary of State—Edwin Kerswill, Phillips.
State Treasurer—H. J. Noyes, Muskego.
Attorney-General—E. W. Chapin, Wausau.
Superintendent of Public Instruction—H. C. Scott, Oshkosh.
Insurance Commissioner—Frank R. Derrick, Brookfield.
Railroad Commissioner—Verner M. Weeks, Fond du Lac.
Presidential Electors at Large—S. D. Hastings, Sr., Green Bay, and J. H. Berkey, Monroe.
Chairman of the State Central Committee—J. E. Clayton, Milwaukee.

A platform endorsing the national ticket and the national platform was adopted with much enthusiasm. In an hour this morning over $600 was raised on the floor of the convention as the initial contribution to the state campaign fund. The prohibitionists expect to poll about 10,000 votes in Wisconsin this fall. Their candidate for governor two years ago received over 8,000 votes.

FLOUR JUMPS UP 10 CENTS A BARREL

Increased Cost of Wheat Compels An Advance in the Breadstuff—May Go Up to $6.

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Flour advanced 10 cents a barrel yesterday, and a further increase in price is in prospect. This advance follows the rise in wheat from Aug. 20 to date, which is 2½ cents. Aug. 20 wheat closed at 72½ cents. Yesterday's close was 74½ cents, with an eighth of a cent more asked.

Flour was selling at the present figure a short time ago, but Aug. 17, in sympathy with the decline in wheat, was put down to $4.40 a barrel. There is at present a large demand for wheat, while the foreign demand promises to remain good for some time and hold the market at or above present prices. Optimistic dealers on the board of trade are looking so see wheat climb well above the dollar mark, in which case flour will be selling at or close to $6 a barrel.

GERMANIA IS NOT FOR BOHRMICH

Editor Brumder Says He Will Not Support Wisconsin's Democrats International Nominee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 24.—Democratic hopes were rudely shattered today by George Brumder, editor and proprietor of Der Germania, one of the leading German dailies of the country. It was reported last night among the democrats that the Germania would support Louis Gustav Bohrmich for governor. In an interview this afternoon Editor Brumder said:

"Louis Bohrmich is a nice young man but I do not think he has any chance of being elected. We do not agree at all with his political ideas, and while we may say a few kindly words for him personally we shall not support him for governor."

LA FOLLETTE REPORTED ILL.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 24.—Alarming reports have been circulated to the effect that R. M. La Follette is seriously ill with his old complaint, which has attacked him at the end of each of his campaigns. Mrs. La Follette and close friends deny that he is sick, but say Mr. La Follette is worn out. He went to Baraboo a day or two ago, his plan being to go north from there on a fishing trip, to find rest and recuperation.

TEACHERS' MEETING VERY SUCCESSFUL

Rock County Institute Which Has Been in Progress Some Time, Draws to a Close.

The teachers' institute, which has been held at the Janesville High school for the last three weeks, is drawing to a successful close. The attendance has averaged about one hundred. One hundred and twenty-seven was the largest number in attendance at any one time. The difference in that day's attendance is caused by the fact that some of the students were not able to attend during the whole session and some came for a week only. The average of those who were in attendance all the time is about seventy-five.

The superintendents are very much

BOTH FITZSIMMONS AND SHARKEY IN THE BEST POSSIBLE CONDITION

Two Foremost Pugilists in this Country Will Meet In the Prize Ring in New York Tonight.

New York, Aug. 24.—The greatest prize ring general in all the world, Robert Fitzsimmons, will meet the most courageous and most aggressive of heavy-weight fighting men, Tom Sharkey, in a twenty-five round battle at Coney Island tonight.

Both Fitzsimmons and Sharkey this morning claimed they were in the best possible condition for tonight's great battle. All was quiet at the training quarters the men having completed their work yesterday. Fitz was emphatic of the opinion that the sailor would only last ten rounds. Sharkey claims if Fitz fights him as he did Rubin he will settle the Cornishman in a "jig time." Rubin picks Fitz as a winner, and the betting favors him eight to five.

For a Purse of $25,000.

More than three years ago the men were matched and fought at Mechanics Pavilion in San Francisco. On that occasion Sharkey was knocked out by a pleased with the institute and the students, the latter showing themselves unusually attentive to their studies, and have gone into the spirit of the thing with the idea of making a success of it. The hot weather affected the attendance somewhat, but most of the students did not give up on that account, and stuck to their studies from 8 o'clock in the morning until 4:15 at night.

Examinations for teachers' certificates were held to day and will continue tomorrow.

The last seven days of the institute Miss Rosalia Hatherell delivered a series of lectures on the elements of agriculture. Miss Hatherell has taken the short course at the farm institute at the State University, and her lectures showed she had made a thorough study of her subject.

It is hoped the success of this year's institute will lead to larger results and that next year the attendance will be greatly increased.

MR. BUCKLEY DOESN'T APPROVE OF MAHONEY'S FAMOUS REMARK

Leader of Rock County Democrats Succeeds In Getting Out From Under—Evidently Against Radicalism.

Hon. Cornelius Buckley, the leader of the democracy of Rock county, does not like Attorney J. L. Mahoney's Milwaukee speech.

Mr. Buckley's opinion has a strong bearing in that he is the acknowledged head of Bryanism in this county. Knowing that the people would be interested in Mr. Buckley's idea, The Gazette therefore wired its Beloit representative to see Mr. Buckley and ask him for a statement. As the result, the following dispatch was received:

MOBS AT AKRON ARE QUIET TODAY

City Occupied By Soldiers Who Are Not Afraid To Shoot.

WILD RUMOR CURRENT

People In the Ohio Town Are Restless and Waiting For Trouble.

CHIEF OF POLICE IS BLAMED.

Akron, Ohio, Aug. 24.—Having murdered two innocent children, injured a number of noncombatants and destroyed city property worth thousands of dollars, the turbulent mobs of Akron have quieted down. Not because their desire for bloodshed and destruction was satisfied, but because the city is well policed by soldiers who are not afraid to shoot.

At 4 o'clock this morning the rioting had practically ceased. Today the scene of the rioting was visited by thousands. The people of Akron are restless. Everyone appeared to be waiting for trouble, but none occurred.

During the day wild rumors were current that mobs were being formed to go to Cleveland and Lynch Peck, the negro, blow whether foul or fair, that will always admit of argument. Wyatt Earp, famous solely because of his decision at that time, declared the blow to be foul, and Sharkey was carried from the ring bleeding and bruised but a victor.

Since that time these men have fought with varying fortunes, all other aspiring heavyweights. Many months after the battle friendly relations were established between them, and now the time draws near for the battle before the big New York audience which will settle the supremacy.

But it is not to decide who can deliver the hardest punch or which is the better ring general that these two sluggers will enter the ring tonight. The public is interested in these matters but the fighters have little time for them. A purse of $25,000 offered by the Seaside Athletic club is the incentive for these sluggers to pound each other and for that snug sum each will fight as for his life.

but there was no good ground for the rumor. The arrival of the troops distracted the attention of those lawlessly inclined and had a salutary effect on those who would have delighted in a recurrence of the rioting.

Chief of Police Blamed.

Although Mayor Young is criticised somewhat for his contradictory speeches, a great deal of the blame for the rioting is placed on the shoulders of Chief of Police Harrison. The city officials have secured the old post office, corner of Mill street and Broadway, for temporary quarters.

The saloons have been closed all day. At a conference this morning at the Butler Hotel between Mayor Young and the militia officers, dead lines were established and soldiers were placed in different parts of the downtown section of the city.

THREE "B'S" AN ISSUE IN THE BADGER CAMPAIGN

Attorney J. L. Mahoney's Alliterative Utterance Nominating Bohrmich For Governor at Milwaukee Has Created A Great Stir In the State.

"BRYAN, BOHRMICH OR BLOOD" IS BAD.

The Speaker Says He Simply Meant a Hard Political Fight--Democrats Hold the Words Meaningless But Fear Their Effect.

Attorney J. L. Mahoney, much to his surprise, has succeeded in stirring up a first class political sensation, and his alliterative expression of "Bryan, Bohrmich and Blood," while making a nominating speech at the Milwaukee democratic convention, promises to make an exceedingly lively issue in the campaign now on.

Mr. Mahoney said this morning that he did not make use of the expression in the sense quoted by the Chicago papers. He claims he did not intend to convey the idea that wholesale slaughter was to be inaugurated or that the streets were to run red with gore. He simply intended to say in effect: "We are for Bryan and Bohrmich, and are out for blood. We intend to elect our ticket if possible."

Mahoney Spoke Extempore

He says that when he was notified of his selection to nominate Mr. Bohrmich by the chairman of the Kenosha county delegation, he answered that he preferred that another selection be made. The matter rested then until he reached Milwaukee to attend the convention. On the evening before the convention he prepared an outline of his address which did not contain more than a half page of typewritten matter. It was simply an outline of the points he proposed to make. What he said in detail was largely extempore.

He is not pleased with the furore being raised over a perhaps an unguarded expression and does not think it will amount to much. If the republican party did not have anything better to make a campaign issue on it had better quit.

The Chicago Tribune this morning contains the following in relation to the matter:

THREE "B'S" HURT THE PARTY

J. L. Mahoney's Alliterative Utterance Now a Campaign Issue.

"Bryan, Bohrmich, or blood," the closing phrase in the speech of J. L. Mahoney, who placed Mr. Bohrmich's name before the Milwaukee democratic convention on Wednesday, promises to become one of the issues of the Wisconsin campaign. It has startled politicians of all faiths and is causing much worry to the democrats.

While many leaders profess to make light of the sensational declaration, those who take it seriously are numerous. Even the democrats who hold the words meaningless admit they were unwise, and may have a decided effect on the political situation in the state. Several denounce it as an incendiary utterance, likely to arouse bitter feeling between the parties.

Republicans as a rule do not take the expression as meaning a revolution, but they appreciate the importance of Mr. Mahoney's speech as a campaign mistake and will profit by it.

The alliterative declaration in many cases is treated humorously, it being suggested that Mr. Mahoney got his "B's" mixed and intended beer or bluff when he used blood.

Although the majority of the followers of the Bohrmich ticket pass over the Mahoney speech as unimportant, it is significant that the "three B's" expression was the chief topic in every city and town in Wisconsin yesterday. A number of interviews have been obtained to show the general sentiment regarding the speech.

Milwaukee Friends Worried.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 23.—The republicans are laughing at and the democrats are trying to explain away the words of J. L. Mahoney in nominating Mr. Bohrmich yesterday when he said: "We want Bryan, Bohrmich, or blood." No one takes it seriously and the general belief is that Mr. Mahoney in striving at oratorical effect gave utterance to a "Burchard break." The democrats all admit Mahoney made a bad break, and while in private they abuse him, they claim he did not mean anything by it. The republicans claim the break was so serious no one can take it seriously. The Sentinel dismisses the incident with the following statement: "Bryan, Bohrmich or blood may satisfy the eloquent Mr. Mahoney, but there is not the slightest reason for fear that a majority of the voters of Wisconsin have the least hankering for anyone of the three."

May Help the Republicans.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 23.—The expression of J. L. Mahoney of Janesville in nominating L. G. Bohrmich for governor at Milwaukee, "We want Bryan, Bohrmich, or blood," is causing considerable comment as to its probable effect on the campaign. Democrats are trying to explain it away as meaning nothing but an alliteration born of enthusiasm, but republicans deem it a dangerous expression and say the republicans will doubtless profit by it. Other expressions are:

Attorney W. R. Bagley, republican—It certainly looks foolhardy, but I should like to know more of the circumstances before saying anything more.

Former United States Marshal George W. Lewis, democrat—"Mahoney's statement, 'We want Bryan, Bohrmich, or blood,' is simply to be regarded as a play on words; there is nothing revolutionary about it and it does not fore shadow a bitter campaign. We are willing to submit to the majority if it be against us, and Mahoney sprung his statement simply because he thought it a cute alliteration.

Mayor M. J. Hoven, democratic committeeman—Mahoney made his statement thoughtlessly; his speech was unprepared. It will have no particular effect on the campaign.

Has the Sound of Anarchy.

Kenosha, Wis., Aug. 23.—Kenosha democrats and republicans take little stock in the "Bryan, Bohrmich, or Blood" campaign in Wisconsin, as is evidenced by the following interviews:

G. R. McDowell, independent democrat—I have taken no interest in the campaign and don't know what kind of a campaign "Bryan, Bohrmich, or Blood" means. If Mahoney is a rational human being his language means revolution.

W. M. Cowell, republican—"Bryan, Bohrmich, or Blood" is a bad combination.

W. S. McDermott, silver republican—The speaker evidently could not think of any other word commencing with "B" and put in the "Blood."

J. L. Fox, Democrat—It sounds like the words of Governor Waite of Colorado.

C. A. Tarbell, republican—It looks like anarchy.

J. A. Killen, democrat, editor of Kenosha Union—It is a boomerang like "Rum, Romanism, and Rebellion."

F. C. Culley, editor of Daily Gazette, democrat—I am in it for all but the "Blood."

Sure to Hurt the Ticket.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Aug. 24.—Regarding the Mahoney speech at Milwaukee, local politicians said:

Major E. B. Herren, gold democrat—I do not belong to the present populist-democratic party, but I believe the remark of Mr. Mahoney of Janesville will have a bad effect upon the democratic nomination.

Louis A. Lange, democratic candidate for senator in the Eighteenth Wisconsin district—I heard Mr. Mahoney make the statement referred to in closing his nominating speech and considered it an attempt at an oratorical climax.

Frank M. Givens, republican—I guess Mr. Mahoney was trying to work up an alliterative phrase.

Not Taken as Serious.

Beloit, Wis., Aug. 24.—J. L. Mahoney's utterance created little comment among either republicans or democrats here, for Mahoney is regarded as a sensationalist. Some expressions follow:

Mayor Simon Smith, republican—Any statement coming from Mahoney does not represent his party.

E. F. Hanson, republican—I regard it as a thoughtless utterance that carries no particular meaning.

John Rood, republican—I know Mahoney. He is a humorist. He said what he did to be funny.

"Bust" or "Beer" Intended

Racine, Wis., Aug. 24.—There has been much talk today on the street between politicians of both parties in regard to the closing remarks of Mr. Mahoney before the convention in nominating Mr. Bohrmich in which he originated the slogan, "Bryan, Bohrmich or blood." A number of leading republicans

NEW "PARAMOUNT ISSUE."

Kansas Woman to Marry Snitter Who Carries Dudley Township.

Dudley township, Haskell county, Kan., the only township in the United States which gave a majority for the Palmer and Buckner ticket in 1896, presents a new "paramount issue."

A recent letter from there, according to a Topeka dispatch to the New York Times, states that James Bradley, Republican, and Willis Williamson, Democrat, both stockmen and both suitors for the heart and hand of Miss Mary Kincaid, a schoolteacher, were sent for by the young lady the other day and told that she would marry the one who carried Dudley township for the total vote was six—three for Palmer, two for McKinley and one for Bryan.

Two more voters have gone into Dudley township, but their politics is unknown. Only one of the Palmer voters has declared for McKinley. The uncertainty surrounding the result and the odd contract entered into by these three young persons have caused the people of the state to term this a new "paramount issue."

SEE HARNESS RACES ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Afternoon's Entertainment At Bostwick Park Will Be of Much Interest.

On account of the rain making it impossible to get the track in shape, the trotting matinee that was to be held tomorrow afternoon has been postponed until Wednesday next.

The lovers of harness races having been denied the pleasure of witnessing a good race for the past four years will be glad to learn that they will be given an opportunity to witness a series of races both trotting and pacing that will furnish an afternoon's entertainment of rare enjoyment.

The horses engaged are closely matched in speed and so there is considerable jealousy as well as friendly rivalry among local owners. Stubborn and exciting contests are assured.

The races will take place over the course of Bostwick Park, formerly the Fair grounds. The track will be in fine condition for fast time.

The best horse, Col. Diston, that paced a half mile at Edgerton in 1:05 has been entered in the free-for-all. He is owned by Mr. C. F. Mabbett of Edgerton. Mr. Cohn of Edgerton has also entered his fast pacer with a record of 2:13. Mr. Stevens' Happy Alcy record of 2:14 may also start.

"Geh' Howe" will again try conclusions with H. S. Ames handsome chestnut mare, Alice. This alone will prove an exciting and interesting race worth traveling miles to see.

In the trot and pace is entered Mr. Huguin's bay gelding with record 2:29. Mr. Lock's gelding Wellington record 2:21 and others. In green class there will be Landlord Brewer's promising young mare. Mr. Nichol's handsome pacer and others. In fact the afternoon will be filled in with pleasurable entertainment from start to finish.

The price of admission will be only ten cents, fifteen cents extra for grand stand. The entire receipts go to pay for use of the grounds and fixing the track.

Perfect womanhood depends on perfect health. Nature's rarest gift of physical beauty comes to all who use Rocky Mountain Tea. 35c. Smith's Pharmacy, Kodak agents.

Cleanest in America.

The Lackawanna Railroad is the cleanest railroad in America. Even though it cared little for the comfort of its passengers, which it does, it probably would burn hard coal, for the reason that it owns the most extensive anthracite coal mines in Pennsylvania, and it is cheaper for it to burn hard coal, which makes no smoke, than soft. At any rate, there is no smoke from its locomotives. It is built for the most part through the mountains where rock is the material easiest of access, and its road bed for that reason is rock ballasted. There is therefore, no dust. These two things are of unusual interest to the traveler by the line, for the reason that on no other road in the United States is there stronger incentive to keep one's eyes upon the passing scene. It is said of this line truthfully that every mile is picturesque. It traverses the agricultural region of Western New York, the valley region of Central New York, the mountain region of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and every mile offers a view that is beautiful, interesting and entrancing. In point of comfort its passengers are particularly fortunate, for, in addition to there being no smoke or dust, the cars are roomy and scrupulously clean. Sleeping cars, parlor cars and dining cars offer all the conveniences and comforts of modern travel.

Loved by the people, hated by the would-be rivals; the foe of disease, its friend of humanity—Rocky Mountain Tea made by the Madison Medicine Co. Smith's Pharmacy, Kodak agents.

PRESIDENT

McKINLEY

Reproduced in Ten Colors from a Late Photograph, for which the President specially sat, at the request of the Publishers.

(Size 14 x 21 INCHES.)

It has been printed for us on heavy plate-paper, in a form suitable for framing, by one of the largest art lithograph houses in America, in the famous French style of color-plate work. Every American family will want one of these handsome pictures of the President. It must be remembered that this picture is in no sense a cheap chromo, but is an example of the very highest style of illuminated printing. It will be an ornament to any library or drawing-room. Our readers can have the McKinley portrait at what it costs us (namely, ten cents per copy) by merely filling out the coupon below, and sending it to this office at once. There will be such a demand for this portrait that we advise sending orders at once. As many copies as may be desired can be had on one coupon, providing ten cents is sent for each copy. Write name and address plainly, and remit in coin or postage stamps.

Simmering it down to the fact, the Wisconsin democratic platform reads as follows:

"We, the Bryanites of Wisconsin, in state convention assembled, point with pride to the fact that we have no issues, and view with alarm the fact that the republicans have a lot of good ones. Therefore we are unalterably opposed to anything that the republicans advocate. And upon this theory, lay on McDuff.

The people of Omaha made a serious mistake when they padded the census returns ten years ago, as the record now shows a heavy loss in population instead of the gain that the city is really entitled to. "Honesty is the best policy" with a city as well as with an individual.

The train robbers who only got $200 for holding up the passengers in a Pullman car were evidently unheeded to the ways of the world. Otherwise they would have stuck up the porter the first thing instead of wasting their time on a Chicago banker.

Mr. Bryan says the populist and democratic principles are practically the same. Mr. Bryan tells the truth. For further confirmation, apply to any gold democrat you please.

Janesville wants factories and many of them. The proposition made by Mr. Stenhouse certainly sounds well, and is worthy of close attention.

Strange, isn't it, that with the air full of political lightning rods, that Mr. Jove should throw his bolts into a common every day barn?

Doubtless Mr. Bryan was much surprised when the pops popped, but he lost neither his presence of mind or his voice.

Mr. Mahoney leaves us totally in the dark on one point—which he wants the most of, "Bryan, Bohmrich, and blood!"

In Rock county, however, the rallying cry will be "Buckley, Bryan, Bohmrich and Blood"—especially Buckley!

And no democrat who doesn't want Buckley, "Bryan, Bohmrich and blood" need apply, either.

And, figuring from the same basis, the prohibition slogan will be "Woolley and Water!"

Government at Akron did not spring from the "consent of the governed" either.

The people of Akron appear to be quite acrimonious.

MINNESOTA ESTIMATE OF SPOONER

St. Paul Pioneer Press: Senator Spooner is one of the strongest and most forceful men of republicans. He has the ideal equipment for a political leader. He is a man of real scholarship, a gentleman of fine presence and manner, one of the foremost members of his profession in the country, and a man whose rare breadth of view is combined with that accuracy and balance of judgment that are the essentials of statesmanship. He belongs less to Wisconsin than to the nation, and the nation has need of him. * * * The republic needs more men of his stamp; men with brain and conscience; men in whom the partisan is lost in the patriot; men who can look ahead with clear vision and shape and direct the policy of the nation for the great world that lies before it as well as for the event of the day. Senator Spooner has rendered great service and made a great record. His retirement from active political life, if it is permitted, will be a distinct loss to the nation.

Gen. Chaffee Brings Harmony by a Middle Course.

SENTRIES PREVENT LOOTING.

Whereabouts of Empress Dowager a Mystery, but It Is Thought She Is in the Vicinity of Peking—Netherlands Minister Wounded.

London, Aug. 24.—Fires, fighting and dissension are apparently following in the wake of the relief of Peking. The Daily Mail publishes dispatches from the Chinese capital, dated as late as Aug. 17, declaring that a great fire was then raging in the imperial city. The Russian commander had declined to accept the decision of the other generals not to violate the imperial precincts and street fighting was going on.

Gen. Chaffee—so it is asserted—maintained that the Chinese had been adequately punished already, and that it would be unwise to take the imperial palace. This explains the withdrawal of the Americans after breaching three gates, as cabled by the special correspondent of the Associated Press. The Russian general, however, maintained that his government had declared war against China and that therefore there was no reason to prevent him carrying hostilities into the sacred precincts.

Judging from various and in many cases contradictory dispatches that have reached Europe this morning from Peking, the commanders eventually adopted a middle course, for a Reuter telegram asserts that sentries were placed to prevent looting. Hence it is presumed that the imperial buildings, although captured, will not be destroyed.

The fires appear to be incendiary and to be caused by the Chinese themselves. All the dispatches point to the fact that when the latest message received here left Peking the commanders were somewhat at sea regarding their future action, all awaiting instructions from their governments.

The foreign residents appear to have been sent to Tientsin, although the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Mail says the ministers will not leave Peking until negotiations for indemnity are under way.

Neither the commanders nor the diplomats were in communication with the Chinese government on Aug. 17. They were then searching for Prince Tuan.

Among the puzzling reports as to the whereabouts of the empress dowager is one from St. Petersburg that she is in the vicinity of Peking, but surrounded. The emperor seems to have disappeared completely.

It is officially reported that the minister of The Netherlands, Dr. F. M. Knobel, was slightly wounded during the siege.

St. Petersburg dispatches announce good progress in the Manchurian campaign. The town of Mergen was captured Aug. 18, with trifling Russian loss, while the Chinese suffered severely, leaving ten guns, 700 rifles and large quantities of ammunition in the hands of the Russians.

TORTURED BY FIENDS.

Horrible Sufferings of Women at Hands of Boxers.

Shanghai, Aug. 24.—Further details of the brutal treatment of the members of the American inland missionaries who fled from Hankow were ascertained here. Miss Rice was beaten, knocked down and a heavy cart drawn repeatedly over her body, after which she was clubbed to death.

Miss Huston, also of the American mission, had her skull fractured by a blow which exposed part of her brain; after suffering this horrible injury she was starved and tortured for twenty days. Her injured brain mortified and she died in awful agony.

Mrs. Cooper of the British inland mission was divested of her clothing, tied to a stake and left under the blistering sun and at the mercy of the flies. After several days of agony and starvation death came to her relief.

MOB BURNS IN HANKOW.

Two Ringleaders of a Band of Pillagers Decapitated.

Paris, Aug. 24.—The French consul at Hankow wires that an attempt at an uprising occurred during the night of Aug. 21. A band of Chinese tried to set fire to a house adjoining the customs bank, which is adjacent to the British concession, with the object of pillaging the bank and burning the European quarter. The viceroy, however, took immediate steps and arrested the ringleaders, seizing at the same time arms and documents demonstrating the existence of a secret society and an organized plot.

Two of the leading culprits were decapitated, their heads being subsequently exhibited in the center of the

BURNING OF PEKIN.

Report from Moscow Says Capital Is in Flames.

Moscow, Aug. 24.—A report from St. Petersburg says the Japanese legation there has received a dispatch from Peking with the news that the legation is all liberated, but that the allied forces are powerless to quench the terrible fire which is making great inroads in a thickly built portion of the city. The soldiers are too fatigued to master the disastrous flames, which are threatening the whole of the capital.

The leaders of the rebels, Prince Tuan and others, are still in the city, but too securely concealed to be found, although they are being carefully sought.

The dowager empress has not fled to Sian Fu, but in another and unknown direction.

A report from Peking says that Gen. Linevitch has been given full authority to guard and defend the city. Fierce fighting is also said to be still going on inside the walls.

Gen. Linevitch's Siberian army corps has become practically inoperative on account of the warm weather.

Freight caravans between Hankow and various other points have been interrupted for the last six weeks on account of the danger of the road and the necessity of assisting the guard.

REPLY TO LI HUNG CHANG.

State Department Not Willing to End Hostilities.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 24.—The state department this morning made public the following reply to Li Hung Chang's two requests for a cessation of the allied hostilities now in progress at Peking:

"Sent to the Chinese minister, Aug. 22, 1900, 1:30 p. m.: Memorandum in response to the Chinese minister's communication of cablegrams from Viceroy Earl Li Hung Chang, dated Aug. 19 and 21, proposing the immediate cessation of hostilities and the appointment of an envoy to conduct negotiations, received at the department of state, Aug. 20 and 21, 1900.

"While the condition set forth in the memorandum delivered to the Chinese minister Aug. 12 has not been fulfilled and the powers have been compelled to rescue their ministers by force of arms unaided by the Chinese government, still this government is ready to welcome any overtures for a truce and invite the other powers to join when security is established in the Chinese capital and the Chinese government shows its ability and willingness to make on its part an effective suspension of hostilities there and elsewhere in China.

"When this is done—and we hope it will be done promptly—the United States will be prepared to appoint a representative to join the representatives of the other similarly interested powers and of the authoritative and responsible government of the Chinese empire to attain the ends declared in our circular to the powers of July 3, 1900.

"Acting Secretary, Department of State, Washington, D. C., Aug. 22, 1900."

LONG CAMPAIGN IN CHINA.

Belief in Washington That Troops Will Remain There All Winter.

New York, Aug. 24.—A special to the Herald from Washington says there is now every prospect that the United States forces in China will be detained there for some time and probably through the winter. This, it is learned, was apparent from a dispatch with which Gen. Chaffee accompanied his list of casualties, which Secretary Root refused to make public.

Gen. Chaffee's description of the military situation caused the dispatch sent Tuesday asking him for a report on the subject, instead of showing a less serious state of affairs than Minister Conger had intimated, as the authorities had hoped that he might do, he made it clear that further fighting would be necessary, and that it was impossible to predict at what date the restoration of order in China would make possible the withdrawal of American and other foreign troops from that country.

While Peking is in possession of the allied forces the Chinese troops are making demonstrations against Tientsin.

A Pathetic Portrait.

In the old castle at Hamburg, where he has been in residence, the German emperor will have the opportunity of seeing a portrait of his great-great-grandfather, George III, of Great Britain and Ireland, which is assuredly one of the most pathetic pictures of the world. It represents the octogenarian king in his terrible condition of madness and blindness. He is seated, clad in a purple dressing gown, with the Star of the Garter, as if in irony, on his breast. His sightless face is in profile, and he wears a long white beard, which in his day must have seemed a distinguishing attribute of madness.—Chicago News.

LIGHTNING STRUCK A SCHOOL HOUSE

CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE TO THIRD WARD BUILDING.

Bolt Struck the Cupola and Run Down Through the Structure—Reports Hail Storm Night Before Last—Increase the Estimate of Damages Done.

Janesville, has had more than its share of lightning. During the storms of the last few days lightning has done more damage to property than for several years previous to this time.

Last night a bolt of lightning struck the Jefferson school in the Third ward, more familiarly known as the High school and did in the neighborhood of one hundred dollars damage. It will cost almost as much to get ready to make the repairs as the repairs will cost. The lightning struck the large dome on the building on the west side above the windows and broke off a piece of the cornice. It then continued down the inside flooring, breaking in one of the sides of the dome on its way.

Inside the dome was a hard wood ladder used to reach the dome from where the main roof of the building leaves off. The lightning followed down one side of the ladder shattering it badly. Here it seemed to split up into two forks one going out at the base of the dome toward the east and the other towards the north. The bolt that took the southeasterly course tore the shingles on the roof loss from the base of the dome to the edge of the roof in a strip about a foot wide, and also smashed in the roof boards in a number of places, through which the rain which, was falling at the time poured in in large quantities and ran down into the large assembly room on the top floor which is no longer used as a school room.

The lightning also followed down one of the large iron braces in the space between the ceiling and the roof and made a hole about a foot long in the ceiling of the assembly room. The bolt then went toward the north, tore off a strip of shingles from the roof and disappeared without doing further damage.

That the building did not take fire from the lightning is a wonder. It was probably due to the rain which was falling in torrents at the time, that the building did not burn.

It might not have been such a bad thing for the city if the building had burned, as the lot could easily have been disposed of, and with the money the lot would bring, and the insurance two modern school buildings could be erected. The school board have had an offer of $18,000 made them, for the lot, and for that money two first class buildings could be erected.

Reports from the storm night before last indicate that hail did considerable more damage than was expected. The estimates run up as high as $50,000 in Rock county alone. Dane suffered somewhat also, especially about Stoughton.

DUTTON--HOPKINS WEDDING

George A. Dutton, formerly of this city, was married at Joplin, Mo., August 22, to Mary Eugenia Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hopkins of that place. The bride is not known in this city, but is highly spoken of in the community in which she resides. The groom is an old Janesville boy, and grew to manhood in this city; where he has a host of friends who wish him much happiness. He is engaged in business in Leavenworth, Kansas, and has been unusually successful. The couple will be at home after November 1, at Leavenworth, Kansas.

NEATH THE SHADOW OF DEATH

Bought Five Hundred Sheep

Five hundred sheep, the property of Geo. D. Charlton arrived in this city yesterday from the Chicago stock yards. Mr. Charlton thinks there is some money to be made in sheep by buying them in Chicago and sending them here to fatten. He has an extensive pasture where the sheep will be kept until they are in first class shape for the market. It is this shipment proves a success more sheep will be bought in the Chicago market and sent here.

Doubt Legality of Many Marriages.

In the village of Dalton Ledale, near Sunderland, England, 300 couples want to know whether they are married or not. For years they have thought they were, but the bishop of Durham declares they are not. ## WINONA GOLF TEAM COMES TOMORROW

MATCH GAME TO BE PLAYED AT BUCKLETON LINKS.

Janesville Golfers Won a Decisive Victory Against the Rockford Players Yesterday—Albert and Charles Schaller Made Good Scores at Milwaukee Tournament Yesterday.

Word was received this morning that the Winona Golf team with their special car would arrive in Janesville tomorrow noon from Oshkosh, where they play today.

Although the notice of their coming is a little late and leaves only a short time for the Sinissippi club to call in the players that are out of the city, they hope to have a team that can hold their own if not defeat the cracks from Winona.

The Winona team will arrive over the Northwestern road at 12:30 and after a luncheon they will be taken to the grounds for the afternoon's match. Lovers of golf will probably witness as closely a contested game of golf tomorrow afternoon as has ever taken place on the grounds. The Winona team is on its way home after playing a series of matches at different places around the country and are in fine form. The home team is also in fine form, and the club that defeats them on the home course will have to play a game seldom seen in this part of the country. It is expected that a large crowd of club members will be at the grounds to welcome the visitors tomorrow afternoon.

Tournament at Milwaukee.

Although neither of the representatives of the Sinissippi club succeeded in qualifying for the Milwaukee club cup both of them were in on the Keesland consolation cup at the annual tournament of the Milwaukee Country club which began yesterday.

In the qualifying round Albert Schaller, handed in a score of 95 for the eighteen holes and Chas. Schaller handed in a score of 99. In the first round match play Albert Schaller defeated T. W. Spence, the score being 3 up and 2 to play and Charles Schaller defeated R. H. Ritchie by a score of 3 up and 1 to play.

The drawings for today for the second round match play for the Keesland cup resulted in Albert Schaller drawing F. Pettitt of the Kenosha club and Charles Schaller drew William Yule of the same club. At least one or both of the Janesville players ought to be in the semifinals as they have both defeated stronger men of the Kenosha club in the series of matches played between the Kenosha and Janesville clubs last summer.

Defeat the Rockford Club

A tired but happy delegation of the Sinissippi Golf club returned last night from Rockford, Ill., where they were the guests of the Rockford country club during the day.

Once more victory has brightened the standard of the club. The B class men defeating the Forest City team by a score of 43 to 23.

Considering the fact that the A class was not represented on the Sinissippi team and that they played over new grounds that were not in the best of condition, with numerous hazards and bunkers scattered around, the showing made by the Sinissippi players was first class.

In the matter of entertainment the Sinissippi club will have to give in to the Rockford Country club. The home team may be able to defeat the Rockford Country club at golf, but in the matter of entertaining the facilities of the Rockford club give them a decided advantage over the Janesville team and they are willing to admit that Rockford holds first place as entertainers.

The special features of the afternoon outside the team matches was the match between Robert Bolton, the club professional and the best ball of J. P. Baker and C. C. MacLean, which Bolton won by 2 up and the match between Mrs. C. L. Field and Mrs. W. H. King, in which Mrs. King was the winner.

The scores in the match between the Janesville and Rockford teams were as follows:

Centenary of Chaucer's Death.

A NEW BADGER CAMPAIGN ISSUE

cans and democrats interviewed have the following to say:

Clarence Snyder, ex-postmaster, democrat—Mr. Mahoney's remark was a piece of illiterate nonsense. "Bast!" is probably the word intended, and had he said that the sentiment could not have been unfriendly comment.

H. A. Cooper, republican congressman—It was a most astonishing utterance; its tone is strongly anarchistic. I think he meant "Bryan, Bohmrich, or Beer," for we don't want any blood in the politics of Wisconsin.

Will Be Felt In Campaign.

Lancaster, Wis., Aug. 22—The speech of Mr. Mahoney is generally looked upon as intemperate. J. B. Mauer, republican county treasurer, thinks it a thoughtful expression that may bother the speaker and the party in the campaign and he may be sorry he made it.

E. B. Goodsell, Democrat, County Judge, suggests that the speaker's meaning was unfairly reported; that he meant if there was not a change in the administration of the government a bloody destiny may follow. H. W. Brown, republican candidate for County Attorney, thinks Mahoney only meant it as a slogan to excite enthusiasm, and in the campaign it may be helpful in some cases and hurtful in others.

Appleton Friends Annoyed

Appleton, Wis., July 23—Appleton and Fox River Valley democrats are annoyed at Mr. Mahoney's remark concerning "Bryan, Bohmrich, or blood" in his speech at Milwaukee nominating the Wisconsin gubernatorial candidate, while republicans are openly amused. The democratic leaders are obliged to stand much rallying over what is generally regarded as a bad case of straining for oratorical effect. Democrats utterly refuse to discuss the matter seriously.

Denounced by Democrats

Eau Claire, Wis., Aug. 23—The following expressions regarding Mr. Mahoney's speech at Milwaukee yesterday have been secured:

Alderman Groundwater, democrat—That is about the wildest statement I ever heard. If carried into effect it would destroy the people's liberties.

J. M. Charles, democrat—If he said that he is worse than the Rev. Mr. Burchard.

George F. Winslow, republican—Give him the blood, but draw it from the nose.

Judge Julius Gilbertson, republican—Mahoney's speech and Mayor Rose's statement about dying for principle are all rot.

Frank R. Farr, republican—Like his matchless leader, Bryan, Mahoney did not know what he was talking about. Deem No Harm Intended

La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 23—Regarding the statement made by Mahoney in nominating Bohmrich at Milwaukee local politicians say as follows:

Geo. W. Burton [Rep.]—I don't think Mahoney meant anything wrong. He was probably excited.

John Dunden [Dem.]—I don't know what was meant by the expression, but it certainly was not intended to do any harm.

C. S. Van Auken, chairman republican county committee—I think nothing serious was meant by the statement. I look at it as though Mr. Mahoney wanted to use three words beginning with "B" and blood was the first he happened to think of.

Chairman Explains Speech

Waukesha, Wis., Aug. 23.—A. F. Warden, the newly elected chairman of the Democratic State Central committee, when asked his interpretation of Mr. Mahoney's expression, "Bryan, Bohmrich, or blood," said it meant nothing more sanguinary than an alliterative campaign cry of an earnest intention of carrying the state for Bryan and the ticket nominated. Among others interviewed, the following expressed their views:

National democratic committeeman T. E. Ryan. The expression was used as I understand it, to signify the intensity of interest on the part of the democracy of this state for success of both Bryan and Bohmrich. It foreshadows an aggressive campaign. No surrender without a finish.

RATE WILL BE A FARE AND ONE-THIRD

S. S. Hillbrand has just received a letter from the general passenger agent of the C. M. & St. P. R. R. in regard to the rate established to the G. A. R. National Encampment at Chicago next week in which he says: "The rates for the G. A. R. National Encampment were established by the lines generally and neither this road or any other has an independent voice in the matter. The rate is one fare for the round trip where the ordinary one way rate is over $3.00. Where such rate is less than that, the excursion rate is a fare and one third. Whatever may be our own sentiments on the subject, it is impossible for us to make any change in the established rates."

MODERN CHRONICLES

FURTHER PARABLES OF OUR UNCLE SAMUEL.

Bryanite Philistines Denounce the Jeffersonian Policy of Expansion.
The Bryan Method of Counting Chickens Before They Are Hatched.

1. And it came to pass in the sixth month of the year 1900 that McKinley and Roosevelt were nominated for president and vice president by the Israelites, who assembled together in the City of Brotherly Love, which by interpretation is Philadelphia.

2. And it also came to pass that the Philistines gathered themselves together in Kansas City and did nominate Bryan and Stevenson.

3. And, lo, between the Philistines and the Israelites there is a great gulf, which the wayfaring man, though a great lacker of intellect, may behold with the naked optic unless peradventure he clothe his eyes to political verities.

4. Yea, there is a vast catalogue of differences.

5. Now, while the Philistines believe in the new and approved policy of scuttling, the Israelites, headed by McKinley and Roosevelt, stand for the old-fashioned doctrines of Thomas Jefferson, the original American expansionist, who purchased Louisiana for $15,000,000 and governed the vast territory without the least consent of the governed, for in the bill which Thomas signed all the governing power was vested in the president and congress.

6. Now, behold, Bryan and Stevenson denounce this Jeffersonian policy as a crime of ebony hue. Moreover, they have issued their ukase, saying that the policy on which Lincoln was elected was an outrage, for, lo, the great emancipator declared the constitution was not self-extending, but that territories are to be ruled by congress and the president.

7. And thus are the Israelites on the side of Jefferson and Lincoln, while the Philistines are violently in opposition to Lincoln and the fathers of our republic.

8. Now the 50 cent Philistine policy of scuttling is to abandon the Philippines and foreign residents of the Philippines to the tender mercies of Tagal savages, yea, to withdraw our splendid troops and allow the Tagal Boxers to sack and burn Manila, murder most of the inhabitants and ravish the white women. And because McKinley and Roosevelt oppose this beautiful scuttling policy of the 50 centers they are called all the vile names which the gay and festive Bryanites can borrow and invent.

9. Albeit, seeing that the 50 cent policy of scuttling is so tyrannically denied them, we commend to the Bryan and Stevenson scuttlers the consolation afforded by the prophet Necoedemus in the forty-seventh chapter, twenty-fourth verse, Grim and bear it!

10. Now, aforesaid, when millions of our common people were rendered poverty stricken, robbed of their jobs and fed on free soup—and of course we refer to the lovely Robber Wilson tariff times—think ye there was lack of food in the land? We tell ye, Nay! Storehouses were filled with rotting food, the price of which was never cheaper.

11. Wherefore this rotting of food and yet half starved people? Thusly: While we were all so tenderly invited to the glorious free trade feast of cheapness, tickets half price, the people had no money because wage earners were so beautifully swindled out of their jobs by the neat little Wilson tariff bunko game.

12. And today, O ye followers of the almighty 50 cent dollarites, think ye that 50,000,000 are now starving and at the gates of hunger and misery in India because food is scarce in that faroff land? We tell ye, Nay! The storehouses of India are jammed full of food, rice, rotting, yet the people starve.

13. And wherefore doth gaunt hunger gnaw at the vitals of the dying people?

14. Listen and open the optics of your understanding while we tell ye that these starving people are out of work and have no money to purchase the bare necessities of life. And four years more of Robber Wilson tariff swindle would have brought grim starvation to our beloved land.

15. Yea, verily, elect Bryan and a Bryanite congress, whereby wages would be cut one-half by the almighty 50 cent dollar, then flood our markets with foreign goods by free trade, and such ruin and devastation would be wrought here that William Lost Wilson in all his boasted glory could not bring to pass by his beautiful and lovely tariff swindle.

16. There is danger in the very air of Imperial Dictator Bryan, while Headman Stevenson's ax is ready to behold every man opposed to his spoil system.

17. Howbeit, the Philistine poultry fighting calculator, which counteth much chickens before the hatching process, is not reliable. And this epithet will be very much appropriate in November.

Bryan and Stevenson were scratching. And they thought much chickens were hatching. But a November frost nipped them. And the Israelites whipped them. And left Steve and Bryan still scratching.

IN OUR NEXT.

But You Will Have to Wait For It While.

As they turned the rock the two men met face to face, and each leaped back with a menacing "Ha!"

"Scoundrel!"

"Villain!"

"You shall never wed the pure and innocent Augustal!"

"Nor you! I have sworn it!"

For a minute the rivals foamed at the mouth and glared at each other. Then they sprang at each other's throat with tigerish growls, and the fight to the death was on.

(Reader, would you know which one of the lovers was left there in the woods a mangled corpse? Then ask your newsdealer for our next issue.)

We left our hero hanging to the roof of a seven story building. Let us return to him. His strength was gone, and he realized that his seconds were numbered. As he made one more desperate effort to draw himself up his eyes encountered the mocking face of John Johnson. The villain had come to gloat over the death agonies of the man he had wronged.

"Have you no mercy?" gasped Lorenzo as hope died out.

"Not a bit."

"Must I die?"

"You must."

Then Lorenzo closed his eyes, called up the vision of his mother's face, and next moment—

(What happened next moment and for several moments after that is vividly related in our next. Don't miss a good thing.)

"I must end it—I must end it," mused the mysterious man as he approached the bureau with pale but determined face.

On the bureau was a suicidal outfit, consisting of pistols, daggers, ropes, poison, dynamite, gun cotton and croquet mallets.

"I have no fear of death. It will soon be over. The man who fears to die is a coward. All I've got to do is to take up this pistol—thus. I hold the muzzle to my head—so. Then I press—"

(What did he press? Space forbids us to explain in this issue, but next week you shall know all about it. Don't miss the next number.)

EMPEROR GREET'S PRINCE.

Ruler of Germany Drives to the Station in a New Automobile.

New York, Aug. 24.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Berlin says that the prince of Wales has arrived at Wilhelmshofe, Cassel. The emperor, possibly by way of compliment to the prince, was driven to the railway station in an automobile which had been sent to him by the war office as a model.

He enjoyed the ride and was in excellent spirits when the prince arrived, who also seemed in good health and spirits. They embraced and kissed, while the band played the British national anthem. The prince shook hands with the generals of the suite and reviewed the guard of honor.

The ceremony over, the kaiser and his uncle drove to the beautiful castle, where after dinner the celebrated fountains played. The weather was magnificent. In the evening the emperor conducted the prince back to the station. The streets of Cassel were crowded all day.

Negro Shot to Death.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 24.—Sam Fields, a young negro, was shot to death by a mob of white men near Whitehall, in Livingstone parish. Fields had made an attack on Mrs. Peter Poche, but through her desperate resistance he had not succeeded in accomplishing his design. The woman reported to facts promptly and Fields was captured. He was being taken by officers to the county seat, Somerville, when the mob took him forcibly from the officers and shot him to death.

My Condition Could Have Been No Worse.

In the fall of 1897 I contracted blood poisoning. I tried three doctors, but their treatment did me no good. I was getting worse all the time; my hair came out, ulcers appeared in my throat and mouth, my body was almost covered with copper colored spots and offensive sores. I suffered severely from rheumatic pains in my shoulders and arms. My condition could have been no worse; only those afflicted as I was can understand my sufferings. I had about lost all hope of ever being well again when I decided to try S. S. S., but must confess I had little faith left in any medicine. After taking the third bottle I noticed a change in my condition. This was truly encouraging, and I determined to give S. S. S. a thorough trial. From that time on my improvement was rapid; S. S. S. seemed to have the disease completely under control; the sores and ulcers healed and I was soon free from all signs of the disorder. I have been strong and healthy ever since.

HE WAS ARMED.

Highwaymen Compelled to Obey a German Tourist.

In the days when highwaymen were more numerous and successful in Mexico than they are at present, it was the common practice of the natives to travel unarmed and to submit tamely to robbery. With foreigners a different sentiment prevailed. The author of "Mexicans at Home" tells a good story of a German who traveled in that country. This gentleman always carried arms, with every intention of using them rather than allow himself to be robbed. On one occasion, when he was traveling by diligence in the interior—he being the only passenger armed—the coachman suddenly pulled up and announced that robbers were in sight. The German prepared to defend the coach, but the other passengers begged him not to do so, as this might compromise them. Consequently, when the robbers came up he jumped out, and going to the side of the road, called out that they were quite welcome to rob all the other passengers, but that they would please first take down his portmanteau and place it beside him. This they did; and when they had robbed the others, he ordered that his portmanteau should be replaced, which was done. He then took his seat in the coach, and the journey was resumed.—Youth's Companion.

ITALY'S DOWAGER QUEEN.

Fond of Splendor but a Woman of the World.

This is a recent description of Queen Margherita of Italy in The King: "She is not only acquainted with all the languages of the continent, but is familiar with them and enjoys their literatures. She is not only clever, but the most beautiful of all the royalties, and rivals the Princess of Wales in youthful appearance. She is the queen of imagination—beautiful, graceful and gracious, with a natural dignity that proclaims its royalty. The queen is fond of the splendor of court life, and is thoroughly happy at a great state ceremonial, ball or banquet, surrounded by magnificence. Her interests in life are many, and her activity is wonderful. She is a brilliant woman of the world, fond of the society of thinking men, and enjoys conversing with men of science, artists and politicians. The queen also takes a warm interest in the movement for the advancement of women, and keeps herself thoroughly acquainted with its doings, though she abhors a blue-stocking. She is a very hard worker, and knows how to make others work, too. There is no doubt that whatever may happen, the queen is likely to remain the most popular woman in the country."
